Dear Helen,

I hate to bother
you but would you
please mind sending
my gym suit? I am going to take senior
dancing - not that I have the vaguest hope
of getting in tree day,
but I think the practice will be fine. It
begins next Monday
and I have to have my gym suit. It is marked plainly and is
over in the left hand corner of the attic, I
think with your
things. I am just as sorry as I can be to bother you, but I thought maybe with
help there you might

just half a account for it.
The barrel of apples will be grand. How is it coming? I wonder will I go down to the freight office to see about it, or is it coming by express?
Your letter was fine, I love to hear from you.
Gee, but I have oodles
of things to do as
goodnight Jane
